TREATY HEARING STOPS IN EFFORT TO HURRY ACTION

Foreign Committee to Start Work Today on Charges.

EXPECT EARLY REPORT

Prediction Made It Will Be Laid Before Senate
Next Week.

TO STRIKE OUT SHANTUNG

First Test on Amendments to Come on the Japs' Grab.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—In a determined effort to report the peace treaty before the end of next week, the senate foreign relations committee suddenly interrupted its public hearings today and arranged to go to work tomorrow on proposed amendments and reservations.

Although one witness will be heard Monday, members thought that might be the last hearing before the treaty was reported.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the democratic leader, declared his belief that the report would be laid before the senate during the coming week. Republican members agreed with his prediction, but Chairman Lodge declined to say when he thought the committee would act.

Executive Plans.

Last today plans to expedite the consideration of amendments were discussed. The Senate's republicans members of the committee, it is likely that among the first amendments voted on will be one to strike out or modify the articles giving Japan control in Shantung province, China.

The story of the negotiations resulting in the Shantung provision was told to the committee today by E. T. Williams, technical advisor of the American peace delegation. He said he had strongly objected to the settlement reached.

During the day there was more debate on the treaty in the senate. Senator Thomas, democrat, Colorado, criticizing the provision for an international labor organization, and Senator Fall, republican, New Mexico, taking exception to information given by the committee by President Wilson, regarding the resumption of trade with Germany.

No explanation was made of the decision to begin work on amendments at once in this committee, but it is known to have been reached after democratic members had renewed their requests for early action and after some of the republican senators not on the committee had expressed strong disapproval of doing away with a report to hear the additional witnesses summoned yesterday.

Hear Folk Monday.

On Monday the committee will hear Joseph W. Folk, behalf of the Egyptians.

In the senate the treaty is expected to be under debate for some weeks before final action, and committee members pointed out that a supplemental report might be filed should it be warranted by later hearings.

Developments today pointed with increasing certainty to the complete collapse of the effort to pass a compromise resolution along the lines of Professor Wilson's suggestion for separation apart from the ratification itself.

WILSON PLANS TO MEET PERSHING ON HIS RETURN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—President Wilson will return to New York to greet General Pershing on his arrival home next month. It was indicated today at the white house.

The president had been expected to review the Pacific fleet at San Francisco at about the time General Pershing will return from France, but white house officials were not sure whether his plans for returning the fleet had been abandoned. They insisted, however, that he had not given up the idea of a speaking tour over the country in the interest of the peace treaty.

SEARCH FOR AVIATORS STILL PROVES FRUITLESS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 22.—American aviators and troopers sent by Mexican troops searching for the lost fliers, E. H. Waterhouse and J. H. Connally, army aviators, who were just seen Wednesday night in Yuma, Ariz., on a certain point in the Blackwell field, near here, while doing border patrol. The search has made over a strip of land extending southward from the Mexican frontier and reaching approximately 10 miles inland from the Pacific ocean to the gulf of California.

A More Aggressive Campaign to Be Waged Against Mexicans.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The war department up to a late hour had taken no action toward halting the southward advance of the Eighth cavalry troops in the Big Bend district.

While officers continued to maintain silence regarding the scope or secondary purpose of the expedition, Secretary Baker declared that so far as he knew orders recalling the force had not been issued.

The extreme reticence of every state and war department official led to the report that the situation was being handled directly from the white house and that reports dealing with both the military and diplomatic features on receipt here were sent to President Wilson.

LET PACKERS ALONE, IS TENOR OF ADVICE

Kenyon-Kendrick Bill for Regulation Finds Neither Friends Nor Foes Among Many Witnesses.

WIDE RANGE OF TESTIMONY

Farmers, Retailers and Produce Men From All Sections of Country Appear Before Committee.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Federal regulation of the packing industry, proposed in the Kenyon-Kendrick bill now on hearing before the senate agriculture committee, found neither friends nor advocates on the long list of witnesses who aired their views today. Though the testimony came from points all the way between Missouri and Georgia, and their occupations ran the gamut from farmer, through feeders, stockmen, retail butchers and dealers in produce, and while their opinions as to the reasons and responsibility of high cost of living were diverse and somewhat most forcefully put, the packers, it was asserted, should be let alone. Interference with them, the tenor of the statements ran, would be dangerous to the consumer and everybody else.

"We had governmental control of railroads and telephones and telegraphs, until we're plumb worn out and we don't want any more," W. P. Carpenter, stock feeder of Tarkio, told the committee. "I'm in favor of men who can produce the cheapest going ahead as far as he can. That's the way to cut down the cost of living."

Thomas Dunn, a St. Louis meat dealer, aired an unusual view of the situation, when he said "people want to pay high prices because they think they are getting better stuff."

"These hearings will help get the foot steps out of their head," he added, while the committee laughed.

All the evidence indicated that competition was keen in the packing business, and they spoke from long experience in selling there and were inclined to scoff at assertions that the packers dominated the markets. Proposals in the bills to take away the packers' refrigerator cars, J. R. Lynn of Taskie, Mo., said, "were as reasonable as proposals to take away packers' butcher knives."

C. C. Caldwell for the Moultrie, Ga., chamber of commerce, also spoke for a separation.

"I am not unfamiliar with the Big Bend district, for I was stationed at Fort Davis in 1885 as a lieutenant and know the names of all strategic points in the district although I never had an opportunity to cross into Mexico. Knowing this, I realize fully what the troops are up against in the mountains, but I do not know the credit on Colonel Langhorne's command. We chased cattle thieves over these places in 1885 and I know it is no picnic."

PLEASSED WITH SITUATION

After inspecting part of the district, I can appreciate the work that has been done under trying conditions by both men and horses, General Dickman said tonight before he left.

DENY CAPTURES.

General Dickman and Colonel Langhorne this afternoon denied reports that soldiers had been killed below the border.

Operations of the punitive expedition were very limited today and no bandit trails were encountered.

It was expected the movement south would be resumed today.

Reports from the Mexican consul at Presidio, Texas, said co-operation between Mexican troops and the punitive expedition is continuing satisfactorily. No friction is anticipated.

As long as the American punitive expedition continues to follow a hot trail, it will remain in Mexico, unless orders to the contrary are received from the war department.

Gen. Eberhardt, president of the national assembly, was awaiting him. The organ played as Herr Lehmann, president of the Southern department, announced him here today.

General Dickman did not seem concerned over the protest of the Mexican government against the removal of the punitive expedition.

Allies Tell Joseph to Quit Government to Preserve Peace

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—The supreme council today sent instructions to the inter-allied mission at Budapest to inform Archduke Joseph that he must leave the Hungarian government in the interest of European peace, as Europe had suffered so much under the Hapsburgs that there could be no confidence in any government with a Hapsburg a member of it.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—Herbert Hoover's urgent representations to the supreme council to depose Archduke Joseph as head of the Hungarian government to prevent the Hapsburgs from getting a foothold in the country were today termed "the most sensational bombshell which has been thrown into the peace conference since the departure of President Wilson."

It is understood that Mr. Hoover convinced both Premier Clemenceau and A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, of the correctness of his position. The supreme council has already sent a note to the allied general in Budapest asking him to cooperate with the decisions of the conference in recognizing any of the Hapsburgs.

American delegates denied Mr. Hoover's charge that delay in taking action against Archduke Joseph was due to Washington. Frank L. Polk, who succeeded Secretary Lansing on the delegation, has assumed full responsibility for the action of the American peace mission toward Hungary. The American delegates said that Washington had asked for instructions nor had the American attitude changed here.
